

Beyond the Classroom Series

BACKGROUND

During these testing times, when everyone is locked in their homes and all sectors are hit hard, education is no excuse to this. The increased use of smartphones, laptops, and ICT tools have left its remarkable presence and impression upon education system as well. Now, students seeking advanced education systems and smart ways of learning that they can access from the comfort of home from anywhere and anytime. In this direction, we at GDC Bijbehara introduced a novel idea of “Beyond the Classroom Series” wherein, we will be roping in various subject experts talking on several topics of importance, so that everyone can benefit from these interactive sessions particularly student community. Such lectures are truly giving new dimensions to today’s learning system by transforming it into e-learning. Such videos are the best source of targeting remote locations according to students and organizing special classes, whenever they required. Talking about benefits of such lectures, they are the bright future of education system in India that will transform the domain.

Beyond the Classroom Series: Online Lectures
